

Safe Exam Browser Consortium

- Status and Future Perspectives -

Thomas Piendl <piendl@let.ethz.ch>

LET, ETH Zürich

SEB Consortium - Status

1st of July 2016:

SEB consortium went operative with SWITCH and ETH Zurich as principal members

January 2019: SWITCH and ETH Zurich renewed their engagement as principal members for an another 3 year period

SEB Consortium - Status

SWITCH is principal member, facilitates with its funding the silver membership level for all Swiss HEIs, contributes the SEB consortium manager in-kind

ETH Zurich is principal member, contributes one developer position and SEB project management in-kind

Monash University is principal member and contributes funding

SEB Consortium - Status

December 2016: SEB consortium board welcomes eduhub's SIG E-Assessment as delegate of SWITCH

May 2017 onwards: SEB consortium finances a dedicated SEB for Windows developer position

January 2019 onwards: SEB consortium is open to worldwide membership

February 2020: SEB consortium introduces a platinum membership level

SEB Consortium Members as of May 2020

Active Members	Principal	Platinum	Gold	Silver	Bronze
Private Sector			8	1
Public Sector	3		6	1	1
Total=20	3	0	14	2	1

Former Members	Principal	Platinum	Gold	Silver	Bronze
Private Sector			1
Total=1	0	0	1	0	0

SEB Consortium: Future Perspectives

- Looking for some more platinum, gold and silver members:
 - Institutions of Higher Education
 - Companies
- Recruiting 1 additional principal member
- Striving to finance a further developer/test manager position

SEB Consortium: Future Perspectives

- Rethink the legal construction of the consortium due to changes in the Swiss VAT legislation
 - ~~SEB-Foundation~~
 - SEB-Association
 - SEB-Hub

SEB Consortium – Your Contributions?

Please

- Think about your institutions plans on institution wide online examinations in the next 3 years.
- Which membership level would be an appropriate option for your institution?

Let us know!

Visit

www.safeexambrowser.org/consortium