

What's the state of the art at your institution considering e-assessment?
What potential do you see?

If you could freely decide in your institution:
What would you push / do different / change?

What area of e-learning are you deeply passionate about?

What are your sources of inspirations?
How do you get inspired creating e-learning solutions?

Have you ever dreamed to work in the field of e-learning?

Considering your talents overall...
Which one could you use in your current work that you have not yet been using?

What are the key elements of e-assessment for you?
What are the main obstacles?
